

IMSTA Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 15, 2023

IMSTA Announces IMSTA FESTA Tokyo

Toronto, Ontario, Canada—March 2023... Attention Japanese music makers: IMSTA FESTA will return to the Tokyo School of Music on Sunday June 25, 2023, for an in-person day of fun, learning, and networking.

A celebration of music technology, IMSTA FESTA Tokyo brings the music-making community and the music-technology companies together for one-on-one product demonstrations, masterclasses, song reviews, and more.

This annual event offers something for all musicians, songwriters, producers, audio engineers, music students, and educators. There will also be plenty of raffles and giveaways offered by exhibiting companies. Admission is FREE with registration: https://imsta.org/2023_tokyo.php.

###

Media Contact:

Paul Fattahi
Executive Director
EMAIL: p.fattahi@imsta.org
TELEPHONE: 416-789-6850

About the International Music Software Trade Association (IMSTA)

IMSTA is a non-profit association which represents the interests of the music software industry, primarily by educating music software users about the negative effects of software piracy. IMSTA member companies include music software manufacturers, distributors, and retailers, as well as industry media, educational institutions, and other organizations.

International Music Software Trade Association

1160 Ellesmere Road, Toronto, ON M1P 2X4 Canada
T. 416-789-6850 F. 416-789-1667 www.imsta.org